Allergy

We take great care in catering for Allergies and can offer a good selection for most, Please be aware that you must make your server aware of an allergy so they can inform the kitchen, Please help us in managing risk by ensuring you have your epipen with you.

Although we are confident in our system we can never rule out cross contamination in a small and busy kitchen so we ask if you have a life threatening allergy that you make us fully aware by stating LIFE THREATENING allergy and we will either give you an option of a premade premium meal which has been made in a factory elsewhere in a controlled environment or ask that you accept our apologies in us being unable to serve you.

Your safety and the mental wellbeing of our team is our primary concern, we will not risk either.

Starters

Tempura Squid, Thai Fishcakes and Chicken wings are all Gluten Free but please be aware that they are cooked in the same fryer as Spring rolls which contain gluten, this is due to the local electrical system not being large enough and we have to manage our usage.

A couple portions of fish cakes are cooked in the first oil daily, please ask for one of these portions if you feel it is necessary for your requirements.

Soups can be fully Gluten Free

Stir Frys

All can be Gluten free on request

Noodles

Can be Gluten free on request
